SCHOLASTIC

Reading Pro

Similarities with the old system

- Assesses the child's reading ability
- Quizzes monitor the child's comprehension of the book and motivates them

Differences

- The reading ability is categorised as a Lexile level
- The child get to choose 3 interest levels for their books
- The child is given a recommended book list, that takes into consideration their
  - Age
  - Interests
  - Ability
- Library is reorganised alphabetically

Transition stage

- Currently running a lexile level section of the library if the books are not available on the Reading Pro - we need to build up stock (can you help?)

Pupils who read more, achieve more

How many quizzes are there in Reading Pro?

- Quizzes for over 12,100 books...
- From over 360 different publishers and imprints including:
  - Penguin (Roald Dahl, Diary of a Wimpy Kid)
  - Harper Collins (David Walliams, Divergent, Tiger Who Came to Tea)
  - Orchard (Beast Quest)
  - Scholastic (Hunger Games, Julia Donaldson, Horrible Histories)

How were the books selected?

- The book selection came from:
  - Best-selling books in the UK – eg David Walliams, Diary of a Wimpy Kid
  - Classic children's books – eg Little Women
  - The latest children's books
  - Books that may be out of print, but that we know schools have purchased for their libraries.
  - WE WILL BE REQUESTING SOME OF OUR FAVOURITE BOOKS ARE ADDED TOO!

What do the codes mean?

- Lexiles usually are shown by a number followed by 'L', eg. 450L.
- However there are some codes that you may notice:
  - AD: Adult Directed – books that are usually read to a child
  - NC: Non-Conforming – often non-fiction books appropriate for a range of ages
  - HL: High-Low – books at a high interest level, and lower reading ability
  - IG: Illustrated Guide – encyclopaedia's, books with technical vocabulary etc.
  - GN: Graphic Novel – very highly illustrated fiction books, or comic books
  - NP: Non-Prose – Books with very few words
