“When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 24:19 I wonder what this means to you?

Dear Families

I just wanted share the news about our wonderful Harvest Festival Service and let you know how immensely proud I am of our children.

Firstly, it is quite a long walk to St Leonards Church, and their behaviour was impeccable.

Rev. Monica led the children and families in a full service, and I would like to extend our thanks to her and St Leonards Church for making us so welcome. We look forward to Rev. Monica coming into school to lead our assemblies, and pay a special visit to our EYFS class so they get to know her a little better.

As part of our Harvest celebrations, each class created a beautiful canvas art creation depicting the sequence of the Creation story. Along with their deeply thoughtful harvest prayers, I was left utterly amazed at the thoughtfulness and creativity they had shown. Rev. Monica has asked to keep the artworks and prayers at St Leonard's Church to display and share with her congregation for the month ahead. Once returned to school we shall exhibit for you all to see. Well done children and teachers!

During the service, everyone sang their socks off and the children read with great pride and clear voices.

I would also like to send out a big THANKYOU to the many families who came and joined us at the church service. It was wonderful to see you, and I know the children love having you there to celebrate too; it creates such a warm school family feeling. Thank you so much, I really value your support.

Finally, please tell other families about our service, and encourage more to come along to our Christmas nativity service at St George's Church.

Kind regards

Justine Brown

Lord God, I give you all the members of our family. You know them all so well and love them all.

I ask that you would cover us with a rainbow of hope.
Hope that draws us together to work out our differences. Hope that helps us to celebrate together and care for one another.
Hope that rides like a banner in our lives and watches over us wherever we go.
Hope that overcomes adversity and gathers strength to overcome.
Hope that guides us and gives us vision for our future alone and together.
Hope filled with love. Hope that fuels faith. Hope that breathes peace. May our family live in you Underneath your promises. Amen
